“ Leonard and I were pen pals for quite a few years and then we sort of drifted. I came across one of his wonderful letters and a collection of photos just this month. Although we hadn't communicated in a few years he was always there in the back of my mind. Lately, I couldn't stop thinking about him, hoping he was well and wondering what he was up to. I wrote him a letter but don't know if he was ever able to read it. Am so sorry to learn he is gone. He was a kind and intelligent man. I especially treasure the photo he sent me of himself with a little colt. The world has lost one of it's best. Good-bye Leonard, dear friend. I hope you knew you were always held in the highest regard. Your Friend, Arlette Lees, Watsonville, Ca.
