“ I spent some frosty Idaho mornings with Levi Lack and they are cherished memories. He was so thankful for the opportunity to be there, to see new country and just made that trip one in a lifetime for me. He is a duplicate of his father and was a sweet gentleman. If all of us could raise men like him, this country would be a better place to live, Im sure our Heavenly Father is glad to have him home and is using him to bring joy and peace to the heavens. Randy, Im so sorry for your loss...no one takes the place of a son. I appreciate your friendship, you are always welcome in Utah....

“ Levi was my first best friend. Cousins, born six months apart, we played hard, faught hard, and mostly just tried to keep up with all the bigger kids. We didn't seem to have enough time. I will miss your gentle spirit and your quite heart. I will miss your face. May Christ keep you, and deliver you safely into the arms of Our Father.

“ Although I did not know Levi, I have known and loved his grandmother Elsie for many years. I extend heartfelt condolences and prayer in loss to his father, mother and family, and especially to my dear friend Elsie. I know Heaven opened it's glow for Levi's arrival. We never know the hour of life's end but know the promise of giving our lives to a wonderful Savior Jesus and the joy that brings and I know Levi truly knew that joy as well. Always, Jo Lynn Kinman, Deming, NM.
