

Lois Delores Nolan

May 8, 1921 - October 2, 2018

Lois Delores Nolan went home to meet her Lord and Savior, Oct. 2, 2018, to rejoice eternally with Papa, her parents, her family/friends. Lois was a devoted wife, loving mother, wonderful aunt, faithful friend. Her Christian faith was the "solid ground" that carried her through it all. She will be truly missed by those who knew her. She possessed the qualities of a Proverbs woman, a precious jewel from God.

Memorial services will be held Oct. 13, at 11:00 a.m. at Mission Park Baptist Church, at the corner of LaCholla & Ajo Roads in Tucson, Arizona. Graveside services were held at Sunset Cemetery on Friday, October 5, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. You may express condolences at www.westlawnchapelmortuary.com Services entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory of Willcox, Arizona

“ Lois was my babysitter when I was very small. She was also my first piano teacher. She was always patient, had a great sense of humor, and made the best cookies I ever ate. I have fond memories of Lois making her home our "home away from home" for times that I needed to get ready for a school event, but it was too far to go home and get back into town.
