“ Lynn Salivar

“ At any time, she would be the one person I would pick to have my back in any type of situation.

She was the grittiest, toughest, most loving, sweetest, orneriest, most considerate, resourceful, selfless, and kindest person I have known at one time. Most definitely a one of a kind.

Mom was a mother to anyone that needed one, even some that didn't! She was a 4H and community leader. She could paint a portrait, tan a hide, sew a wedding dress from scratch, or cook a banquet dinner. She was a professional photographer and could develop her own pictures.

There are many things I could say about her that most people would consider exceptional, yet she was very humble about her abilities and God given talents. While far from perfect as a person, she loved God more than anything and did her best to put him first. Anyone that knew her probably had a good Jesus conversation with her!

There is so much more that can be said about her that I don't have the words for, but she is missed greatly!!

“ I am very sorry to say that we got a call saying that the flowers we ordered for our beloved Aunt Lynn will not be there for the service - apparently they didn't have enough and offered a paltry $50 bouquet with an additional $20 delivery fee. I want all my family to know that Aunt Ginger and Uncle Frank are very disappointed and angry - we and our family love you and would have been there if it weren't for Pop getting into a very serious auto accident - your mom meant the world to us and we loved her and all of you

Lynn lit a candle in a very dark spot in my life where I didn't understand the love of God. Her warmth, nurturing, and love, guided me to Jesus Christ when pastors weren't able to do that. She shared her wonderful family with me, and invited my elementary school classes to come visit her delightful ranch in Penn Valley, California. My condolences to you, Lynn's family. I loved all of you I knew. She will be remembered as a beacon of light in a dark place.
