“ Our deepest sympathies to the Douglas family for your loss of sweet Maggie. It was our utmost pleasure getting to know her over the last twenty plus years through the NCCH Auxillary, and other organizations, activities, and events throughout Willcox. She and Wanda connected so very well via their shared love for reading and sewing. Maggie was a bright and shining light at the hospital for patients, visitors, employees, staff. The Auxillary's gift shop at NCCH was even brighter for the day because Maggie was there with her smile, kind words, cheer, and support. Indeed, God has called home one of His saints. She will be missed, but we look forward to seeing her again in glory.

“ Maggie is my great aunt, she had a smile and a hug for me when I went to her house as a little girl for Thanksgiving one year! I remember that I had to walk up to her to talk with her because my mom always told me she was deaf. I think I went over a few more times but I can't remember much more about her. I just knew her as my grandpa's sister whom he loved very much! She will be missed greatly by all of us, especially my mother & grandma!
