“ *Manny was our mailman, always a smile and friendly greeting. He often shared his lunch with one of my dogs. She learned to recognize the sound of his vehicle and would run out to the mailbox and wait for him. He would reach down and give her a piece of his sandwich. What a kind man. Thank you Manny for all your years of service. I miss our roadside chats. “ Where do I start...the Encinas family became family members when Ruben married our daughter, Jessica. Over the years we became really close to Manny and Viola. The trips we took to AP, Mexico. Whether it was to go to the dentist and/or going out to eat at the La Palopa. Manny loved his Oysters and mixer of Seafood Soup. The love for Manny and Viola grew and grew. We have the honor of sharing 3 grandsons with them. Manny will be missed...
