Marge was a joy to us. We loved having a cup of coffee and a roll with her at the grocery store when we drove the bus to Willcox. May her precious memory sustain you in your loss.

“ My deepest condolences to you. I worked with your Mother at Lincoln Way Motors during her time there. She was such a nice lady, always cheerful. I remember when she stopped to visit us after she had moved to Arizona, and I thought how wonderful she looked, that the move really seemed to have been good for her. I'm glad I knew her.
