“ I will forever miss you, Inez. and remember the times we shared together when we were growing up an now when you 1st came to stay with me. I am honored and humbled to have gone on this journey with you. I pray that in some way I was able to make it a little easier for you. I am comforted with the fact that you are with my child whom i miss terribly. I will assign you the task of watching out for him as well as our family members who have gone ahead. I love n miss you.
