“ I first remember Mariah when she entered my kindergarten class. I consider her a special friend, having had her in my Sunday school class as well for many years. I hope she learned of Jesus and trusted him as her savior--the most important decision anyone can make.

I feel sad that her life was taken when she was so young. She had a lot of potential and was very sweet.

My prayers are with the family, especially for Josie and Jasmine.

Love always,

Mrs. Phyllis Franklin
