“ Marilyn was such a precious, happy, loving person (but when she was mad....wow)! I first met her in the late 70's early 80's when her girls would come to my day care, Annie's Day Care. Then later at (Whiting Bro's.) Mustang corner were I would get a soda and visit! She loved to laugh and tell stories! Rest In Peace sweet lady. You will be missed!

“ I am heartbroken about the passing of my dear friend Marilyn. I knew her first from working at the Elsie Hogan Library. She was a very spiritual person who loved reading Sylvia Browne and books about dreams. I will miss all my visits with her, talking and watching Jeopardy. We talked on the phone almost every day. Her fur babies will all miss her, Daisy Mae, especially. My deepest sympathy to all her family. RIP my dear friend, I look forward to seeing you again someday.

“ Marilyn was a loving kind soul. I was really good friends with her daughter Sandy from 6th grade until she died. I have lots of fun memories of them both. Everytime I saw her through the years we would talk about one memory in particular. She was getting a chicken ready to cook and we were all being goofy singing shake that chicken bak bak. She will be missed.
