“ My condolences to the family. The family always referred to him as Uncle Marvin so that was our name for him too. Before his health started to fail, he was always "fixing" things. The wood on my dining chairs had dried out and he fixed them. Of course I wasn't the only one. He was alone & enjoyed the home cooking as my Les was always on the patio playing solitaire and snacking. They would visit for hours. Missed his visits after Les was gone.

“ Marvin had a good heart that helped people in all ways. I had great times while married to les Cobb with Marvin. Plus he loved to weld & cabinet making gifts for others. Marvin helped us at the sunsites church back in early 2000 years while we made Easter cave & crosses. Marvin welded those huge crosses for me to dedicate to that Church for my dad's death memorial. He loved animals & people & family relatives. Blessings & peace to the Cobb & Haney families. Norma Cobb
