

Mary Jane Harmon

April 22, 1939 - February 10, 2024

Mary Jane Harmon, age 84, of Willcox, AZ went home to be with the Lord, due to natural causes, on Sat. Feb. 10th, 2024.

Mary Jane was born on April 22, 1939, to beloved Bill and Esther Yentsch in Wilmerding, PA. Her siblings, all predeceased, included Dorothy (Stan) Hagar, Billy and Bob (fraternal twins), Dick (Jayne) and Margaret Audrey, her identical twin.

Mary Jane had 4 beautiful children whom she loved very much: Pandy (Bob) Weck, Victor Dean (deceased), Jody (Jack) Tinney and Felina Anthony.

She boasted of grandchildren Trish (Eric) McGrath, Anna (Andy) Earp, Rachel (Pieter) Weck, Camille (Jaco) Van Niekerk, Steven Dean, Tiffany Olejnik, Michael Dean (deceased), Jason (Erika) Tinney, Samantha (Steven) Crum, Audrey (Rich) Dadd, Chad Anthony, Sterling (Clay) Jackson. Also included are her wonderful nieces, nephews, great and even great, great grandchildren.

Mary Jane worked many years in the hospitality industry to include the famous Gadsden Hotel of Douglas and the Captain Cook of Anchorage, AK. Later, she pursued her passion for law enforcement and excelled in her college Criminology courses. She underwent rigorous training to become a Corrections Officer and even worked toward the end of her career at our own Fort Grant, where her father had worked many years prior.

Mary Jane loved family, friends, and even complete strangers. She had a passion for entertaining with music, for dancing, traveling, flying and Clint Eastwood movies. She was known for her quick and spontaneous laughter, which brightened every room and every heart.

Please join us in celebrating her life on March 2nd, 2pm @ Westlawn Chapel in Willcox, AZ.

Interment of her cremains will follow in Sunset Cemetery.
