

Mason I. Davis

June 22, 1945 - January 20, 2018

Mason Ipsen Davis, 72, of Willcox, Arizona, passed away on January 20, 2018 in Tucson, Arizona.

Mason was born in Mesa, Arizona on June 22, 1945 to Mason W. and Eva I. Davis. He was the only boy out of 6 sisters. Mason attended school in Mesa, AZ until his senior year when his family moved to Fullerton, CA for a short time where he graduated high school. He attended Ricks College in Rexburg, ID for a year before serving a mission for the LDS church in the Central States that covered Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas and Nebraska. Following his mission, he became a fireman and served for nearly two decades as a fireman and Captain for the Mesa Fire Department. Mason worked hard to build a thriving crane operating business that inspired him to revolutionize the way people set trusses by creating, fabricating, and manufacturing award winning truss clips. Mason was an avid hunter and fisherman. In his later years, Mason developed a love and passion for woodworking and leather crafting. He was often found creating gifts to give to friends and loved ones. Mason is survived by his five children, Lisa Boren (Scott), Mason Davis (Natalie), Wells Davis (Maleena), Eva Flake (James), and Avalon Davis. He has 20 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. He is also survived by his sisters Evangeline Russell, Joan Johnson, Bette Lines, Karen Flake, and Michelle LeCheminant. He is predeceased by his wife, Betty Jean Davis, his parents Mason W. Davis and Eva I. Davis, and his sister, Louise Kay.
