“ Mel had such a good sense of humor and fun to be around. He will be missed but I know he is in a better place with his Lord.

“ Mel was a wonderful and blessed person. We did auctions together in Southern California. His day wasn't complete unless everyone was happy and then we'd be off to dinner and unwind. Mel loved telling stories about his family and dearly loved them, especially the grandchildren. When we weren't auctioning anymore, he'd check in with me and always remembered to ask about everyone in my family.

“ My sister Mody talks to me through e-mail all the time about her friend Sharon and husband Mel. This is how I know Mel. He was a good man and was very kind to my sister. He taught her the ropes of Auctioneering and she will always remember him for that and more. I am so sorry to hear he passed, Sharon. He is in paradise now. Your fond memories of days gone by will help you through this difficult time. My Sincerest Sympathy, DEE.

“ The Mel Jackson I knew was generous guy, and a man of faith with a good sense of humor. He showed me the ropes of his business as an Auctioneer around 2004, then he gladly gave me the lead when he retired. He left me with something that will always be a grateful heart and part of his Legacy. Thank you Mel for believing in me and giving me a living that has been fun and interesting, I can only pray I can do this work until I am as old as you were when you finally had to hang your hat. Ateam Auctioneers will continue in your honor. 💔

We celebrate the life of this man and also his going home to our father almighty in his mercy. We grieve with his family and friends that must remain here to join together when time comes.

I will always remember the stories Mel told me about my hometown, Tekonsha, Michigan. Most people who live in Michigan don't know Tekonsha, but Mel knew. Mel and Sharon sat in the pew behind us every Sunday, and Mel always tapped me on the shoulder when he sat down. Our loss is Heaven's gain. I can almost see him talking with our Savior, Jesus. I know Heaven rejoiced at his Homecoming. Dance Mel, you're home!

Mel, few Order of Eastern Star members remember you but I do. I appreciate how kind and helpful you and Reva were to my mother, Edra Dickson. By you and my mother's example I am called to witness the true meaning of Masonic values. You will be joining many great Masons Sisters and Brothers @Desert Rest, a job well done.
