“ Where do I start? No matter the distance between me and my uncle, he was always there for me. I loved him very much. I know he was a different human being and hard to understand, but I did. He always remembered how much I loved the little mermaid or how I use to suck my fingers. Now you no longer hurt. I am opening up my heart and soul for you to visit me. I love you xo

“ Michael was a very special son. He weighed 4 pounds 10 1/2 ounces, and was tiny but full of spunk. The cutest little boy grew into a handsome man. His love for John was so evident and always concerned for his well being. Mike and John took in stray cats to make sure they had care and love. I loved my dear son and thankful I told him that often. Rest in peace with the angels.

“ Michael was my brother and I loved him very much. I have many good memories of my brother from childhood - spending weekends at our grandparents, helping my grandfather with his garden, and enjoying the simple things in life. May he join our grandparents in heaven and rest in peace.
