“ I am so sorry for your loss. I wondered why Norman quit calling. We communicated all the time after he moved to Wilcox. A classmate at JCHS in Boulder, Montana. I went to school with Norman. He was an upper classmate. We became good friends long time after we had graduated once again, I'm sorry for your loss and it's truly a loss for me also signed Sandy Lorenz.

“ Norm and I became friends when he visited our gift shop in Pearce, AZ. He was fun to chat with. He had lots of life experience and very interesting stories to share. It will be way too quiet without a visit from Norm on Fridays. I miss you Norm

“ Norman was a great man. A little rough around the edges but a sweet soul that will be missed. I used to work at the library in our small town in MT and he would always bring me his tomatos from his tomato plate they were the best I ever did have. Norman was fun to chat with and he told me to go explore and not stay in our small town. I am so glad I listened and My family and I relocated to South Dakota and we are loving it. He was so right lots to see other than just the same old stuff ;)
I will miss our phone calls, texts, and just knowing he was a phone call away.
RIP Norman.
