

Olen Keith Herring

September 15, 1920 - September 7, 2015

Olen Keith Herring, Sr.

Born: September 15, 1920 Manitou, Oklahoma

Died: September 07, 2015 Willcox, Arizona

Survived by his wife of 73 years, Ruth Edna, his three sons, Olen Keith, Jr.; Jerry (Judy); Steven (Brenda).

Five grandsons and four great-grandchildren.

Preceded in death by his parents, Cecil and WildaBelle, his six brothers, five sisters and his daughter-in-law RoAnn.

Raised in Tipton, Oklahoma on his parents' farm, Olen learned the value of an honest and trustworthy lifestyle, as well as a superior and unsurpassed work ethic. Olen moved to Arizona in 1939 and met Ruth in 1941 in Willcox while working on a jobsite. They married April 11, 1942. Olen served in the U.S. Navy from 1944 to 1946. They raised their three sons in Tucson, Arizona, where they lived until Olen retired in 1987. They then moved to Willcox where their life together began and remain to this day. Olen was a great mentor to his sons, grandsons and great-grandchildren and loved his family unconditionally. He was born into the greatest generation in America. He never knew a stranger. Always gave you a smile and an out-stretched hand to welcome you and offer help when needed. Wherever he was, Olen shared his kindness, made sure everyone had what they needed and always had a funny story or joke to tell to bring a smile and laughter to those around him. Olen will be dearly missed by all who loved him!

Memorial Services will be held 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, September 19, 2015 at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Willcox. Arrangements entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory of Willcox, Arizona.
