“ Pam,
We were friends for many years. Though we lived close time got away and we didn't see so much of each other. But there were so many good time's we shared. We sang kareoki at my place. We partied so hard that you ended up waking up in my front yard on a table and being woke up by someone coming to visit that morning. And when we bought those ugly plastic teeth and wore them around town and out of town. We didn't care even if we were the only one's that would laugh and think we looked funny. To many memories tell. So Pamela may you rest in peace. I miss you already.
Your friend,

“ Pam,
You were a very good friend for many years. Even though we lived close. Time seemed to keep us from staying in touch. We had a lot of fun times like the time we partied at my house and you ended up sleeping outside on the table that was out in my front yard. When we bought them ugly plastic teeth and wore them around town & out of town. We didn't care if we were the only ones that would laugh and think we looked funny. Pam you are missed already. I will always remember the good times. Rest in peace.
Your friend,
Tony...

When I came to apply at NCCH in 1991 the first person I met was you, I didnt know that you would become my best friend and one of the most important people in my life. We went through divorce, being pregnant together, lake trips with our babies that I will never forget, many, many laughs, and a few tears along the way. I will never forget your laughter, and the joy you brought into our lives with Dani Girl, Haley Jo, and Jess Ann. (they all remember your "Goodie Drawer"). I miss you dearly and although I didn't get to say goodbye I know how much you loved and cared about us all. - Cool Beans!
