

Patricia "Triss" Catherine Lane-Crane

July 3, 1948 - July 6, 2019

Patricia (Triss) C. Lane-Crane was born in Miami, Florida, on July 3, 1948, to Robert and Ruth (Jordan) Lane. She grew up in Hollywood, Florida, then moved as a child to Halifax, Nova Scotia, then to Sedalia, Missouri, and then to St. Louis, Missouri. She attended Harris Teachers College in St. Louis, Forest Park Community College in St. Louis and Southern Illinois University in Edwardsville, Illinois.

On June 9, 1973, she married Wayne E. Crane who survives her. Triss was employed as a social worker at Nashville Community Hospital in Nashville, Illinois, as activity director for Northern Cochise Community Nursing Home in Willcox, Arizona, and finally as a social worker for the Cochise County Public Fiduciary out of Bisbee, Arizona.

Triss enjoyed gardening and raising Lhasa Apso dogs. She also had keen interests in sociology and anthropology as well as many fields of science including astronomy, geology and paleontology. She also enjoyed concerts of indie bands, mariachis and Latin (particularly Cuban) music and dance.

You may donate to the Ben's Bells project in her memory online at www.bensbells.org/patricialanecrane or mail contributions directly to Ben's Bells Project, 40 W. Broadway Blvd., Tucson, AZ 85701.

Friends may gather anytime between 2:00-5:00 p.m., Sunday, July 21, 2019 at Country Spur to share your memories and condolences. You may also express condolences at www.westlawnchapelmortuary.com Arrangements entrusted to Westlawn Chapel, Mortuary and Crematory of Willcox, Arizona.

“ Wayne, We are so sorry to hear about Triss. I just read her obit. Don't have any words to ease your pain and sorrow. Not sure if we can be there Sunday because I am having surgery on my nose on Thursday for skin cancer. Just know that you are in our thoughts.
