

Phillip D. Faulk

May 16, 1941 - March 28, 2025

Phillip David Faulk, of Vail, Arizona, passed away peacefully on March 28, 2025, at the age of 83.

Born in San Antonio, Texas, Phil was a cherished husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He is survived by his loving wife, Susan; daughters, Sabra Faulk (Deanna), Vanessa Estes (RJ), and Michelle Montoya (Phillip); grandchildren, Tylar McDaniel, Kade Kirkendall (Kelsey), Carolie Estes, Seth Estes (Sophie) and Hailey Dukart; great-grandchildren, Carter and Waylon Kirkendall, brother Tim Faulk (Suzi) and numerous nieces and nephews—all of whom he loved very much.

Phil made his mark on Willcox as a respected custom home builder. Many homes and businesses throughout the community stand as a testament to his craftsmanship and dedication. His legacy lives on in the structures he built with care and precision for his fellow community members.

Prior to leaving Willcox, Phil was an active member of the First Southern Baptist Church, which had been founded by his late father many years ago. His faith and commitment to the church community were important aspects of his life and reflected his deep family roots in the area.

Those who knew Phil will remember his exceptional kindness toward everyone he met and his wonderful sense of humor that brightened the lives of those around him. Phil harbored a lifelong love of aviation and realized his dream when he learned to fly in his younger years. Music was another source of joy in his life, as he enjoyed playing guitar. Over the years he developed a passion for photography, initially documenting the homes he built with pride, and later in life, capturing the beauty of sunsets and nature.

Phil was preceded in death by his parents Albert and Geri, sister Judy, son Jeffery, daughter Whitney, and grandson Jackson.

At Phil's request, no services will be held.
