“ Rachel and I met four months before we were married. She brought me much happiness, joy and love. She changed me in do many positive ways. While the time I had with her was short I treasure the time as an eternity. She made me a better person and even better man! I love you, miss you & cherish you

“ Dear Rachel,

I am so glad you looked up your Dad. I had the pleasure of speaking with you many times on the phone and then meeting you in person at the Nogales airport. It was fun to explore the Tubac Art Festival with you and have lunch with margaritas. Thank you for calling me the day you were getting married with such wonderful news. I hope to meet Tim and give him a hug. You remain in my prayers along with Kodiak, Tim, Larry and all those who love you.

*Blessings,
Terri Newlon*
