Randy Norman of Bowie died at the Haven of Safford on November 9, 2018 at the age of 58. He is survived by his brothers, Dale and Herschel, and sister Alma. He was born in Abilene, TX

Love and tolerance was his motto. how often do adults place people before profit, a helping hand before blame, caring ahead of winning, others ahead of self? He was extremely sensitive. He was easily and deeply wounded. He cried when other were suffering.

He was was very smart, resourceful, and determined. As he grew, he built a new and tougher personality: a personality of cool, of fun, of hard work and determination. He built stubborn walls to protect that fragile self. He worked hard how he could be a better person, a better friend, a better neighbor. And he thought he was really beginning to get it. That was Randy.

Now Randy, finally, is at rest, and we should held him close within our hearts. Please hold him close, as we do, in your mind and spirit, Remember him and the meaning of his life. He was an extraordinary person with a big and simple human heart.
