

Rita A. Vindiola

January 23, 1927 - December 20, 2017

Rita Ayala Vindiola passed away on December 20, 2017 at the age of 90. Rita was born on January 23, 1927 in Willcox, Arizona to Ramon and Delfina (Moraga) Ayala. Rita married Rocky Vindiola on February 22, 1953 in Lordsburg, New Mexico. He took her to the Larson Ranch in Bonita, Arizona where she became a cowpunchers wife, taking on the ranch life. She cooked for all of the cowboys and all of the cattle roundups, she loved to cook and was a very good cook. She loved to listen to music and dance. They spent many Saturday nights dancing at the Bonita store. She raised five children in Bonita and lived on the ranch for eleven years. They then moved to San Manuel, Arizona then onto Oracle, Arizona. They moved back to Willcox to finish out their lives. They were married for 56 years before her husband died in 2009. Rita is survived by her children, Anita Jurado of Willcox, Fred (Mary) Jurado of Chandler, Arizona, Sally (Tom) Pierson of Mesa, Arizona, Rocky (Renee) Vindiola, Jr. of Mesa, Arizona, Jeannie (Scott) Harris of Willcox, 14 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren, 9 great great grandchildren and many numerous nieces and nephews. Rita is preceded in death by her husband Rocky Vindiola, daughter Margaret Vindiola, grandson Glenn Pierson, parents Ramon and Delfina Ayala, sisters Lala Valenzuela, Anita Cox and Ramona Torres. A Rosary will be offered 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, December 27, 2017 at Westlawn Chapel. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at Sacred Heart Catholic Church being celebrated at 10:30 a.m. With interment of her cremains in Sunset Cemetery. You may express condolences at www.westlaw

Rita & I are first cousin. I was sadden to learn that she had passed. Rita was born 8 days before I was born. All of our family loved to dance, loved our mexican music and enjoyed visiting with one another. I believe that there is only two of is left from this generation, my 95 year old sister, Delia & myself. We pray for Rita & all the others who have left us, but we also honor & remember them in our hearts. Good bye prima love Natalia moraga

“ Remembering my last conversation with her at Safeway. She was shopping and kidding she was spending her pennies, than asked if I was spending my pennies ,remember telling her that's all I had in my wallet and we all cracked up laughing. Will miss you very much, love and condolences and prayers to the family. Tia don't forget to spend your pennies in heaven : (❤️❤️
