“ Today is your 3 year anniversary, you are missed so very much. Tina and I always thought the three of us would be sitting together as old individuals, gosh Robert you are ever sooo missed. I always saw you as a gift from above, guess all good no great things do come to an end. Love you forever.

Love always your Sister,

Yolanda/ as your nephew says Willis

“ My baby brother I know it's only words but you will always be part of me. When your sweet sprit left half of mine left too. You will be missed, words can never express how much I love and will miss you. When it's my turn please be the one to escort me into the Lord's kingdom. Love you baby brother. Jim and Dylan send their love and well wishes as well. May your little soul rest (no more pain) wished you reached out to us.
