“Roger was a customer of mine at Starbucks. I saw him every single morning before the sun came out.

“How ya doin, Roger?”

He was the kindest man I’ve ever known, always asking me about school, and how my love life was. When I went through a breakup, he told me he would pray for my heart to heal, and to remember that “Half of those hairy legged boys aren’t even worth killing.” You’re so right, Roger.

Rest easy, you are so loved.
