“ Hi, I am Carol Ruegg. I knew Rosalie when her and her husband lived in Elfrida. They were caretakers of the rectory and St. Frances church. They lived in the rectory and attended St. Jude and St. Frances church. When Rosalie's husband died, Rosalie went to live on Dale Rd. in Nina Peterson's rental home. I would take her to St. Jude's church and got to know her well. She was a very devout Catholic Christian. She said the rosary on a daily basis, prayed constantly, and was a good human being loving and caring to others. Her health was failing, and she could no longer live in Sunsites. She had to move in with her family. I helped her pack up all her belongings. It was a special time for her and me. We knew it would be difficult to see each other again, especially with her health issues. I never once heard Rosalie complain about her life, and all that she had to adjust to. She accepted it as part of her cross that she had to bear for the love of Christ. She knew Christ would get her through each and everyday.

Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend the Rosary or the funeral on Saturday, March 14, 2015. Someone else will be reciting the rosary, but I want the family to know how deeply sorry I am that I cannot attend. I am planning on going to Italy for a week with a tour, and I will be on a plane to Italy. My condolences to all the family on their loss of their mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved you all very much, and without your support through these past few years, she would have been lost. That is true love when you honor your mother and take care of her in her last days. I know it was not easy. But you did it. I have a picture of Rosalie and her husband taken before he died. It shows him looking up to heaven and showing Rosalie with his hand pointed to heaven, and letting her know that is where he would be, and wanted her to follow him when it was time. She is with him now. I have made arrangements to make sure you see the picture, and if you want it, take it as a remembrance. I have enjoyed it all of these years. God Bless You all. Carol
