“ I have a lot I want to say. Rosa was such a warm person, she had a huge heart for kids. I enjoyed being around her, ask anyone, I never wanted to leave. As an infant my parents trusted her to care for me, as a young girl I would sneak out of my house to run across the street (barefoot) just to have breakfast with her and "nana" Tula. She always made me feel welcome. As an adult I would return with my own kids. Same warmth, same smile. I will miss her. Some people you expect to always be there. But we all know life doesn't work that way. Life is short, therefore, appreciate those special people God has placed in your life. I look forward to seeing her smiling face again.

Thank you Jessica, you are right Aunt Rosas House was always filled with kids. We were all treated like her own. Looking back we had some of the best times in our lives there.

I met Rosa when I started dialysis. She knew I was afraid and we prayed together. Her love of music made everyone relax. Her stories were legendary. When she got ill I was in rehab after more surgery and i was hoping to see ger again. Condolences to her family and may memories of her sustain you. God bless. I will miss her.

“ My deepest and heart-felt condolences to Tina, Tanya, and Sonia and the entire family. I have the fondest of memories of Rose. The connection you girls had with your mom was one-of-kind. It brings a smile to my face remembering how you'd joke around with one another and laugh so loud and for so long that we'd forget what we were cackling about in the first place. I remember Rose so vividly at Bingo organizing her space in preparation for a great day of friends and bingo. She was always the kindest of women and a lucky one at that! May her memory bring you peace and comfort you today, tomorrow and always.
