“ Rose and I met in 1995 when I was 15 years old. My family and I shared a tour bus with her and her husband, Earl, in Great Britain and Ireland. We became friends and exchanged addresses. We were pen pals until a couple of years ago when I didn't get a letter back. I assumed that maybe her address has changed. I am sorry to hear of her passing. I will miss her kindness greatly. She was such a lovely person. I still have a few of her letters and little origami pieces she made me.
