“ *I didn't get to know Roy Lee for very long, but the short time I did, he was a wonderful, caring man. Jennifer is very lucky to have him in her family tree. Thank you for all your love for your children, your loyalty and faithfulness to your family and for welcoming a ^%# Yankee into your family for a short time. You will really be missed, Papa Roy.

“ I remember Uncle Roy and I going fishing one day and i tied a bobber to a small bream I caught so it would go back to the bed and we would know where they were. It didnt work but he sure got a good laugh out of it. we will miss you.

*Love your nephew

“ Uncle Roy, you will be missed. I remember coming out to Arizona as a kid, riding in the back of the truck camper. I can't remember if it was yours or Uncle Charles, but I remember all us cousins in it...

May God welcome you to HIS house with all HiS love.

Your nephew,

Mike...

P.S., tell my Dad hi and I love him...
