“ Russell was my best friend, my husband and my life. I miss him every day of my life and my light is gone. We lived and loved and had more happiness in the four months we were married than most couples have in a life time.

He was a wonderful husband, father and friend. I cannot wait till we are together again. I love you my Oldham. Your wife Cindy “ Cindy, I am so sorry to hear about Russ's passing. I have many nice memories of Andy I sharing time at his home. He often cooked something delicious and invited us to join him for lunch. He was a very intuitive guy, he taught me a number of interesting things. Cindy, you will be in my thoughts and prayers. This W club is so very difficult. God Bless you belonged to and knew Russell, I offer my heart-felt sadness for your loss. Although, I wasn't blessed with his presence in my life, my mom Cindy was. He was her Knight-in-loving Spirit.*

“ Russ.(DAD) was full of knowledge, humor, and if you did not want to hear the truth--don't ask, because he was blunt. I could go on forever on what a great mentor he was to me. He was a Pohaku (ROCK) in mine and many other peoples lives. You always hugged me and said you loved me. That always warmed me up inside. Thank you for having me as your son-in-law for almost 40 years. Know that what you passed down to us all will not ever be forgotten and will never leave our hearts. You will forever be missed. Aloha au ie'oe Kimo Luke'la Oldham. Mahalo E aloha'oe. Nalani kali. Hawaiian to English- I love you James Russell Oldham. Thank you and farewell to you. The heavens wait.
