Ryan Funk

December 1, 1983 – September 1, 2024

Ryan Funk, beloved husband, father, brother, son, and friend, passed away on September 1, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and music. Born on December 1, 1983, Ryan lived his life with passion, humor, and an unwavering dedication to those he cared about. Ryan is survived by his devoted wife, Amber Unrast; his cherished son, Shaun Funk; and his loving brother, Robert Funk. As well as siblings, Dad and stepmom, many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunt and uncle, many friends. He will be remembered for his quick wit, sarcastic humor, and warm, charismatic personality. Music was the rhythm of Ryan's life. Whether he was playing, singing, or simply discussing his favorite tunes, particularly his deep love for Megadeth, music was his constant companion. A true guitar enthusiast, Ryan found joy and solace in his instrument, often sharing that passion with his close friends and family. Ryan's big heart and loving soul touched everyone he met. He was known for his epic stories, unforgettable experiences, and the way he made everyone around him feel special and valued. His presence was magnetic, and his absence will be deeply felt by all who knew him. Though he is no longer with us, Ryan's spirit will continue to resonate through the music he loved and the memories he created with those who were fortunate enough to be part of his life. The loss of such an incredible soul is profound, but his legacy will live on in the laughter, love, and music he inspired.

“ When Ryan was in elementary school he invited his mom (my sister) and me to his school play. He was very excited and proved to be quite the little ham in the play.... 😄
This was about the time period when he started to share his developing sense of humor which was funny and quite witty. He improved it greatly with time, and kept it all of his life. He was a joy to our family. I'll miss you Ryan...Love, Aunt Mary

“ My grandson Darrel Hartman was a good friend of Ryan's. They started a band together and were looking for a name. I suggested the silent Bs, because I thought his name was Bryan.
