“ what a beautiful life. a loving soul, a caring friend, and what a loss to our world! she always had a smile and a "what's up, girl?" for me. my heart is broken and my soul just smaller for losing such a beautiful friend...my condolences to her children who were her life, and her family. i grieve with you, for i can say she was my friend. always my friend. i chose to lite a yellow candle, because i have hope that she is with God, and is one of his blessed angels. love, tina larmey
