

Tammy Schmelzer Dietzel

May 18, 1967 - October 6, 2014

Tamera Lyne (Schmelzer) Dietzel

Always positive and independent, Tammy courageously fought her battle against cancer for over 4 years before being relieved of her pain and suffering on October 6, 2014 at her home in Ontario, Oregon.

Tammy was born May 18, 1967 to Robert Leo and Nan (Hansen) Schmelzer in Douglas Arizona. A year later they moved to Willcox, Arizona where she grew up and spent her early adult life. In 1990 Tammy, her husband Randy Dietzel and her 2 sons moved to Bakersfield California, where she resided until moving to Oregon.

Loving survivors include her mother, Nan Cambern of Willcox, sons James Dietzel Hill and fiancée Lindsay Miller of Mesa, Arizona, and Robert (Patty) Dietzel Hill, along with her grandsons AJ Nuzzo, Randall Hill and Robert Jr. She also leaves behind her sister Kristi Lee and nephew Tyler Schmelzer of Willcox and step-brother Jerry (Mary) Cambern and their children Amber, James and Brooke all of Benson. Also surviving is her significant other Kenneth Porter of Ontario, Oregon along with many Uncles, Aunts and Cousins.

Preceding her in death was her father Bob Schmelzer, step-father Jim Cambern, husband Randall Dietzel and half-sister Pamela Schmelzer, along with her grandparents Gus A and Nonda Hansen and Otto and Maggie Schmelzer.

“ In my heart and mind Tammy will always be the funny, carefree girl who vacationed with us in California that long ago summer and the broken hearted child just a few weeks later when Bob was killed. Loved her then, love her still. So sad for her family but glad she is out of pain. Sally White
