He had always had a special interest in motorcycles and playing the drums. After retiring he enjoyed working on projects with Paula bringing old things to new. Tim was always working on something. Those that knew him well will remember his sense of humor. Tim was a good father, husband, son-in-law, brother-in-law, Uncle and grandpa. He will be greatly missed but, in our hearts forever and with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his father D.J. Williams, his mother Ioma May Williams, his brother David J. Williams and a grandson Gabriel Williams.
