“ It would be nearly impossible to talk about all the ways my life intertwined with Troy. He and my boys, Rick and Robbie Riggs, did so many things together and for some reason I remember a birthday party at my house when Troy brought an Eddy Rabbitt record and I had no idea who that was. Troy and my Rob got their American Farmer degree together. Our families were, in today's vocabulary BFF! Mary and I will now go through life sisters through losing our sons way too early. I will never forget Troy..... I send love and caring to all the loving Farbos who have suffered so. God Bless Them as they continue through life. Grief is the price we pay for love we have had. It never goes away completely but eventually you can remember the good times more than the pain.

“ So many memories! 4-H, MYF, church camps, riding horses to the mailbox and the rock house, night games of hide and seek or kick the can, swimming in the pump back. Any time Troy was there, everyone was going to be included and everyone was going to have fun! He had a playful and welcoming spirit. Rest in peace, Troy. Love to all the Farbo family. I am so sorry for you loss.
