“ Vicky was always friendly, she worked another job so she could send her kids money, while in college. My Dad Jesse Cox was friends with her dad, and they would talk about the bible and politics for hours. I had thought we will never go home. Vicky was the sweetest person I know, she had a beautiful spirit, and we will miss her greatly.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Vickie... We were so shocked to read the notice this morning. The last time I saw Vickie, she looked so good, and being the strong person that she was, told me that she was doing great.

Vickie was a very strong person, a strong Christian and we loved her dearly, having known her for most of her life. We can rest assured that Vickie is at rest with the Lord, and will endure no further suffering.

May God be with each of you, her loving family. May He give you strength and peace throughout this time of loss, as well as in the days to come.

Our thoughts, love and prayers go out to each of you.
