“ Virginia was also a "Ramirez." Our beloved grandmother Gerry would say she was part of us and when our beloved Tio JR went home to our Lord, Virginia just couldn't accept that he was gone. Our beautiful Virginia was such an intelligent, strong caring beautiful young woman. God bless her children, grandchildren and all her family. Always tell someone you love them because tomorrow is never promised.

“ About five and a half years ago Virginia or (Vicki ) as I used to call her, we were at a rosary together. She was in back of me. She was crying and asking God why that individual that had passed away had died. Now many years later, I too cry and ask God why Vicki had too die. Gone before her time . Rest in peace, my friend. Descansa en paz amiga mia.

I will always remember Virginia and her great smile. She always made it a point to stop by my work and ask me how I was doing and feeling. We always had time to exchange our stories even at the grocery store with Jesse patiently waiting . You will be missed my dear friend fly with the angels and remember no more pain. God give her family the strength and comfort needed at this time. Descansa en paz amiga ❤️
